

Funds to Support Your Work!!!

The U.S. Department of Justice - Office on Violence Against Women (OVW) recently released the request for proposals for 2 grant programs that are very important to Communities of Color programs and organizations.

Both of these grant programs are intended to provide an opportunity for Communities of Color programs and organizations to access much needed funding to support the critical work of ending violence against women.

We have included some key dates but for more details, please visit the Office on Violence Against Women website at the link pasted below each grant to view the solicitation and get more information.
